

KALEIGH CAMPITELLI

Kaleigh Campitelli is the daughter of alumni association member Dana Campitelli, class of 2009. After graduation Kaleigh plans to attend Allan Hancock College then transferring to a four-year college majoring in psychology with a career in becoming a psychologist or social worker. She has maintained an impressive weighted 4.22 GPA throughout her high school career, while being actively involved in school and community activities. Highlights during her high school career have included being named to the principal's list each semester and earning Scholar and Varsity Letter awards for participating on the school's competition dance team. What stands out about Kaleigh is her rigorous work ethic in maintaining academic excellence while being enrolled in AP and college level coursework and graduating from high school with 28 college credits.

One of her strengths is her commitment in serving others and her passion in making an impact in her community. For several years, Kaleigh has participated at a local dance studio with an internship completing over 200 hours working with children and adults. She also supports teachers and students by volunteering weekly at an elementary school. In addition to her academic success, Kaleigh demonstrates outstanding leadership and responsibility through her extensive involvement in her community. She shows genuine interest in supporting people, which aligns her to succeed in a career in psychology or social work. We wish you the best, Kaleigh.
